17.2 The Appointing Authority may, if it deems proper in any special circumstances, permit an employee to resign from the service of the Institute by shorter notice than is prescribed in clause (1) above.

17.3 Resignation will be deemed to be operative only after it has been accepted by the Appointing Authority.

18. Agreements :

Every employee of the Institute shall accept in writing the terms & conditions of his/her appointment before joining the Institute.

CHAPTER V – PAY

19. Initial Pay :

19.1 An employee shall, on his appointment to a post on a time scale of pay, draw at the lowest stage of the time scale.

Provided that, when such appointment is made by promotion-

(i) if the employee has been drawing a higher pay in any other substantive appointment under the Institute immediately before his/her appointment to such post, he/she shall draw pay at the stage next higher to such pay; and

(ii) if he/she has previously served in the same post or any other post under the Institute on the same or identical time-scale of pay, and was drawing a pay higher than the pay admissible to him/her under clause (i), he/she shall draw such higher pay and the period of his/her duty in such post on such pay shall also be counted for purpose of increment.

19.2 Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (1), the Appointing Authority may decide that the employee shall draw pay at any higher stage than that fixed under the aforesaid clause.

20. Increments :

20.1 An increment shall be drawn in the time scale of pay with effect from the first day of the relevant month, unless it is withheld under the provisions of chapter XII of these Bye-Laws.

20.2 The Governing Council may, in recognition of the exceptional and outstanding merit of an employee sanction to him/her such additional increments not exceeding five as it may deem fit.

Provided that such additional increments are not granted more often than once in three years.

20.3 The Appointing Authority shall be the Competent Authority to allow an employee to cross the efficiency bar, if any, in his/her time scale.

21. Service for increments :

The following service shall count for increments in the time scale of a post:

- (i) Duty in that post or any other post of the same or higher grade, whether continuous or not;
- (ii) Duty in equivalent or higher post in foreign service; and
- (iii) Leave, other than extra ordinary leave.

Provided that the Appointing Authority may direct that extra-ordinary leave shall also count for increments if it is satisfied that such leave was taken on account of illness or for any other cause beyond the control of the employee or in the public interest.

22. Pay during leave :

Pay during leave would be admissible as per the Central Government rules amended from time to time.

23. Special Pay, Honorarium and Fee:

The Governing Council may sanction to an employee such special pay, honorarium or fee and on such condition as it may deem fit.

24. Drawal of Pay :

24.1 An employee shall be entitled to draw the pay of the post of which he/she is appointed from the date on which he/she assumes charge of that post, if the charge is transferred before noon on that date. If the charge is transferred after noon, he/she shall draw pay from the following day.

24.2 Pay in respect of any month shall become payable on the last working day of the month.

24.3 An employee resigning from the service of the Institute without the notice prescribed by Bye-Law 17, shall not, unless the Appointing Authority directs otherwise, be allowed to draw pay due but not drawn.

Provided that the pay so not allowed to be draw shall not exceed the pay for one month.

CHAPTER VI – ALLOWANCES

(a) A subsistence allowance at an amount equal to the leave salary which the employee would have drawn if he had been on leave on half pay and, in addition, dearness allowance, if admissible on the basis of such leave salary.

Provided that where the period of suspension exceeds twelve months, the authority which made or is deemed to have made the order of suspension shall be competent to vary the amount of subsistence allowances for any period subsequent to the period of the first 12 (twelve) months as follows:

(i) The amount of subsistence allowance may be increased by a suitable amount not exceeding 50% of the subsistence allowance admissible during the period of first 12 (twelve) months, if in the opinion of the said authority, the period of suspension has been prolonged for reasons to be recorded in writing, not directly attributable to the employee;

(ii) The amount of subsistence allowance may be reduced by a suitable amount not exceeding 50% of the subsistence allowance admissible during the period of the first 12 (twelve) months, if, in the opinion of the said authority, the period of suspension has been prolonged due to the reasons to be recorded in writing directly attributable to the employee;

(iii) The rate of dearness allowance will be passed on the increased or, as the case may be, the decreased amount of subsistence allowance admissible under sub-clause (i) and (ii) above.

- (b) Any other compensatory allowance admissible from time to time on the basis of which the employee was in receipt on the date of suspension, subject to the fulfillment of other conditions laid down for the drawal of such allowance.

27.2 No payment under clause (1) shall be made unless the employee furnishes a certificate that he/she is not engaged in any other employment; business, profession or vocation.

Provided that in the case of an employee dismissed, removed or compulsorily retired from service, who is deemed to have been placed or to continue to be under suspension from the date of such dismissal or removal or compulsory retirement, under sub-rule (3) or sub rule (4) of rule 12 of the Central Civil Services (Classification, control and Appeal) Rules, 1965, and who fails to produce such a certificate for any period or periods during which he is deemed to be placed or to continue to be under suspension, he shall be entitled to the subsistence allowances and other allowances equal to the amount by which his earnings during such period or periods as the case may be, fall short of the amount that would be otherwise admissible to him where the subsistence allowance and other allowances admissible to him are equal to or less than the amount earned by him nothing in this proviso shall apply to him.

28. Allowances during leave :

28.1 House Rent Allowance and City Compensatory Allowance shall be admissible to an employee on leave other than extra-ordinary leave or study leave as follows:

- (1) During casual leave, special casual leave or compensatory leave, the same as on duty;
- (2) During leave with allowances the same as he was drawing immediately preceding the commencement of leave.

Provided that the City Compensatory Allowance shall not be admissible unless the employee resided at the Headquarters of the Institute for not less than half of the month for which it is claimed, and in the case of House Rent Allowance, he continues to actually incur the expenditure.

29. Leave Travel Concession :

Employees of the Institute shall be entitled to leave travel concessions on the same terms and conditions as are admissible to the employees of the Govt. of India from time to time.

30. Travelling and Daily Allowance :

30.1 Travelling allowance and daily allowance for journeys performed by the employee on duty shall be admissible in accordance with the provisions of the Government of India Rules as amended from time to time.

30.2 The Director shall have the power to permit the employees of the Institute to travel by air when justified in the interest of service.

30.3 Members of the General Body of the Institute and non-official Members of the Committees constituted by the Institute and individuals who may be called upon to undertake specific items of work for the Institute may be reimbursed the cost of the air journey/air-conditioned accommodation where considered justified by the Director.

31. Drawal of Allowances :

31.1 Dearness Allowance, City Compensatory Allowance and House Rent Allowance admissible to an employee for any month shall be payable on the last working day of the month along with his pay.

31.2 Travelling Allowance, leave travel concession and daily allowance shall ordinarily be payable on return of the employee to his headquarters.

Provided that the Director or an officer authorized by him may sanction payment in advance of such sum as he deems fit towards such allowance.

31.3 An employee resigning from the service of the Institute without the notice prescribed by Bye-Law 17 shall not, unless the Appointing Authority directs otherwise, be allowed to draw the allowance due but not drawn.

Provided that the allowances not allowed to be drawn shall not exceed the allowances for one month.

CHAPTER VII – MEDICAL FACILITY

32. An employee shall be entitled to such medical facilities as are available to Central Government employees from time to time under CSMA Rules, including CGHS facilities. Until such time the CGHS facilities are introduced, the employees shall be eligible for reimbursement of medical expenses as per such terms and as approved by the Governing Council.

CHAPTER VIII – LEAVE RULES

33. Leave Rules :

An employee of the Institute other than a borrowed employee shall be eligible to the benefits of the Contributory Provident Fund-cum-Gratuity of the Institute. Gratuity shall be payable to an employee of the Institute on termination of his employment after he has rendered continuous service for not less than 5 years (a) on superannuation; or (b) on his retirement or resignation; or (c) on his death or disablement due to accident or disease.

35. Settlement of terms of employees transferred from State or Central Government or from autonomous organizations sponsored by the State of Central Governments:

35.1 When a permanent employee of the State or the Central Government or of an autonomous organization sponsored by the State or Central Government is transferred to the Institute, he shall have the option of either retaining the retirement benefits available to him under the Rules of the lending organization or of being governed by the Bye-Laws of the Institute provided that the lending organization agrees to the sharing of liabilities in the manner set out in clauses (2) and (3). This option shall also be available to quasi-permanent and temporary employees after confirmation within the Institute.

35.2 (i) If the employees opt to retain the retirement benefits available to him under the rules of the lending organization, that organization shall undertake to pay pension due to the individual on his retirement, but recover the capitalized value (commuted value of pension plus proportionate death-cum-retirement gratuity) of the Institute's share of the pension, calculated on the basis of the service rendered with the Institute.

(ii) In the event of the death of the employee while in service of the Institute, the family pension/death-cum-retirement gratuity due to the family of the employee shall be admissible under the rules of the lending organization concerned and the liability thereto apportioned as under sub-clause (i) above.

- 35.3 If the employee elects to be governed by the Bye-Laws of the Institute, the lending organization shall pay to the Institute Contributory Provident Fund contributions and interest thereon for the period for which he has served in the lending organization in accordance with the rules and procedure of the Organization.

CHAPTER X – GENERAL CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

36. Whole time employment:

- 36.1 The whole time of an employee shall be at the disposal of the Institute and he may be employed by the Institute for the performance of such duties as may be assigned to him.
- 36.2 Without prejudice to the generality of clause (1).
- (i) an employee may be sent on deputation or required to under go a course of study or instruction within or outside India;
 - (ii) an employee may be required to serve the Institute at any place and in any post not lower than the post to which he is substantively appointed.

CHAPTER XI – CONDUCT RULES

37. The Central Civil Services(Conduct) Rules, 1964 would be applicable to the employees of the Institute.
38. General :
- 38.1 Every employee shall at all times maintain absolute integrity and devotion to duty.
- 38.2 Every employee shall abide by and comply with the rules and Bye-Laws of the Institute and all orders and directions of his superior authorities.

CHAPTER XII – DISCIPLINE

39. Suspension :

39.1 The Appointing Authority or any other authority superior thereto may place an employee under suspension:

- (a) where a disciplinary proceeding against him is contemplated or is pending; or
- (b) where a case against him in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation or trial.

39.2 An employee who is detained in custody, whether on a criminal charge or otherwise, for a period exceeding 48 hours shall be deemed to have been suspended with effect from the date of his detention, by an order of the Appointing Authority in and shall remain under suspension until further orders.

39.3 An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this Bye-Law, may at any time be revoked by the authority which makes or is deemed to have made it, or by any superior authority.

40. Penalties :

The following penalties may, for good and sufficient reasons and as hereinafter provided, be imposed on an employee-

- i) Censure;
- ii) Withholding of increments or promotion;
- iii) Recovery from pay of the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the Institute by negligence or breach of the rules or Bye-Laws of the Institute or orders or directions of superior authorities;
- iv) Reduction to a lower grade or post or to a lower stage in a time-scale;
- v) Compulsory retirement; and
- vi) Dismissal from service.

41. Authority competent to impose a penalty :

The Appointing Authority or any other authority referred to in Bye-Law 6 which may be superior to the Appointing Authority may impose on an employee any of the penalties specified in Bye-Law 40.

42. Procedure for imposing Penalties :

No order imposing any penalty on an employee shall be passed except after:

- (a) the employee is informed in writing of the proposal to take action against him and of the allegations on which it is proposed to be taken and is given an opportunity to make any representation he may wish to make; and
- (b) such representation, if any, is taken into consideration by the Authority, imposing the penalty.

43. Special Provision regarding borrowed employees

- 1. Where an order of suspension is made or a disciplinary proceeding is commenced against a borrowed employee, the lending authority shall forthwith be informed of the circumstances leading to the order of suspension or commencement of the disciplinary proceeding, as the case may be.
- 2. In the light of the findings in the disciplinary proceeding taken against such employee;
 - (i) if the authority imposing the penalty is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified in clause (iv) to (vi) of Bye-Law 40 should be imposed on him, it shall replace his services at the disposal of the lending authority and transmit to it the proceedings of the inquiry for such action as it deems necessary; and
 - (ii) if the authority imposing the penalty is of the opinion that any other penalty should be imposed on him, it may after consultation with the lending authority, pass such orders on the case as it deems necessary;

Provided that in the event of a difference of opinion between the lending authority and the authority imposing the penalty, the services of the employee shall be replaced at the disposal of the lending authority.

Explanation:

In this Bye-Law, the expression "Lending Authority" means the authority which has placed the services of the borrowed employee at the disposal of the Institute.

CHAPTER XIII – APPEAL AND REVIEW

44. Appellate Authorities :

An appeal shall lie from any original order made:

- (i) By the Registrar to the Director;
- (ii) By the Director to the Governing Council;

45. Period of limitation for appeal :

No appeal shall be entertained unless it is submitted within a period of three months from the date on which the order appealed against is communicated to the person concerned.

Provided that the appellate authority may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient reason for not submitting the appeal in time.

46. Form, Contents and submission of appeal :

- 1) Every person submitting an appeal shall do so separately and in his own name;

- 2) The appeal shall be addressed to the appellate authority shall contain all material statements and arguments on which the appellant lies shall not contain any disrespectful or improper language and shall be complete in itself.
- 3) Every appeal shall be submitted to the Director, who shall, unless he/she is himself/herself the appellate authority, transmit it to the appellate authority.

47. Consideration of Appeals :

The appellate authority shall consider every appeal in such manner as it deems fit and pass such orders as it deems proper in the circumstances of the case.

48. Review :

The Governing Council may, on its own motion or otherwise, review any order made by any authority and pass such orders as it deems fit in the circumstances of the case;

Provided that no order imposing an enhanced penalty shall be passed unless the person concerned has been given an opportunity of making any representation which he may wish to make against such enhanced penalty.

49. Orders on Reinstatement :

Where an employee who has been dismissed or suspended, is reinstated, the authority reinstating him shall make an order specifying;

- (i) Whether the employee may draw for the period of his absence from duty any pay and allowance in addition to the pay and allowances admissible under the Bye-Law 27.
- (ii) Whether such period may be treated as duty for all or any purposes.

CHAPTER XIV – MISCELLANEOUS

50. Residential Accommodation for Employees :

- 1) The employees of the Institute may be provided with unfurnished houses, if available, in which they may be required to reside, subject to such conditions as may be laid down by the Governing Council.
- 2) The Governing Council may authorize the grant of rent-free furnished or unfurnished accommodation if it considers necessary to do so in the interests of the Institute.
