No. 43029/05/2011-Admn/3278

Date:23.11.2012

NOTICE

As everybody may be aware, students of 11th batch Diploma courses would join SRFTI on 26th November, 2012 and many of them are likely to stay at the accommodation within the campus.

2. In this connection, I have been directed to draw attention of all concerned to the following legal provisions in respect of Ragging of students at any academic institution:

- a) As per directives of Supreme Court, Ragging in any education institution is banned and all concerned should pro-actively cooperate for prevention of any kind of Ragging within SRFTI campus.
- b) Ragging is a punishable offence and persons involved directly or indirectly with Ragging would be punished, if report of such incident is lodged.
- c) Any incident of Ragging/attempted Ragging should be reported to the Anti-Ragging Committee of this Institution immediately either verbally or over telephone or in writing.
- d) The members of Anti-Ragging Committee, on receipt of such complaints/reports, will promptly take preventive/corrective measures and bring it to the notice of Dean/Director/Registrar, if required.
- e) In case of every incident of Ragging, a First Information Report (FIR) must be filed with the local police station, without exception, by the Institutional authorities.
- f) Depending on the nature and gravity of the offence, as may be established by the Anti-Ragging Committee, the degree of punishment will be decided by the competent authority and this may even lead to suspension/expulsion from hostel/institution, temporary or even permanently.
- g) Additionally, even a fine upto Rs.25,000/- can be imposed, over and above other punishment(s).
- h) In case, where identification of the specific person(s) involved in ragging may not be possible, the SRFTI may resort to collective punishment to all associated with/indulging such criminal activities.
