Sub: Input to Rajya Sabha Unstarred Qusetion with Dy No. 2183 - Reg.

Sir,

With reference to your email, dated 26.07.2024, regarding the subject cited above, the requisite input on point (b) is provided below:

- b) How is the deemed university status benefit the postgraduate diploma holders from SRFTI in terms of eligibility for UGC-approved scales and designations in Government-run universities?

Despite the high level of expertise possessed by SRF TI postgraduate diploma holders in the field, departments or universities often face challenges in recruiting them due to the lack of formal degrees in filmmaking or related disciplines. These results in SRF TI ex-students working as contractual staff or receiving lower pay compared to peers who are entitled to UGC pay scales.

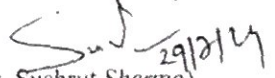

PG degrees will open up perceived opportunities in terms of employment and higher research in India and abroad.

Currently, there is an absence of research and practice-based research within the domain of filmmaking pedagogy in India. The Deemed to be University status will address this gap and provide access to a wide range of filmmaking-based research by awarding UG and PG degrees.

SRFTI currently lacks the authority to award degrees. This sets it apart from other distinguished film institutions globally that offer postgraduate and undergraduate degrees.

This is issued with the approval of competent authority
